

JAZZAMATAZZ FOR KIDS: FALL '14

Students will move, play and stretch, using kid-friendly music, games and props. They will gain coordination, motor skills, control, strength and basic dance techniques. Dancers gain social skills and emotional confidence. Participants must be toilet-trained and feel comfortable participating in a group activity without parental attendance or supervision. Class level placement is based on age and maturity level. Class enrollment is limited.

Parent Visitor Days will be held on September 26 and November 21.

Class attire is dance wear or fitted active wear, with black jazz shoes worn with socks. Clothing should be simple and practical. Dancers should be dressed comfortably enough for free play; to be on the floor, leaping, tumbling and moving without being distracted or hampered by clothing. Tutus, dresses, costumes, ballet/gymnastic/street shoes, loose jewelry or elaborate hair accessories are inappropriate for JAZZAMATAZZ classes. See our website for attire recommendations and details.

Dancers should bring to their classes a labeled water bottle filled with a ample water, as there is no water fountain in Chautauqua Hall. Dancers will get thirsty. A le is recommended.
